

YET INCOMPLETE

Tuesday Night Ere Final Showing Known.

New System of Ballooning Satisfactory.

(A. P. Special Cable.)
 London, Jan. 19.—(By Cable.) The results of the Irish local elections are still incomplete, and will not be fully known till Tuesday night, but some newspapers comment is available, though opinion is not unanimous. The view generally expressed is that the proportional representation experiment has been justified, as it has secured some representation of minorities, which otherwise would have been impossible. The new plan has secured big majorities in the southern provinces, but in the north, where the Unionist League is strong, the results are less satisfactory. The new system of ballooning is generally considered to be a success, and the results are expected to be a fair indication of the general feeling of the people.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 20, 1920.

OUR SANATORIUM

The annual meeting of the Hamilton Health Association in the Connaught last evening brought out a large and distinguished assembly of people, all deeply interested in the work and prosperity of the Mountain Sanatorium. The various addresses, reports and the work of the sanatorium. The speakers were distinguished in their testimony to the good work done at the institution, to the magnificent results obtained by Dr. Holbrook and to the earnest, wholehearted work of all those who have taken their share in the work of the sanatorium. Prof. Haultain, of Toronto University, dealt with the work in connection with the reconstruction of the returned men, who were aided with consumption, and with their vocational training. The reports of the President, and of the President of the ladies' organization, and of Dr. Holbrook all bore testimony to the good work done on the Mountain. Mr. Haultain also spoke of the need for the work of the downtown dispensary being extended.

The President said that the money that was voted to the institution by the electors was to be used for the building of a separate fire proof building for the dispensary. It was a daily and an purchase, a doctors' residence and daily equipment. There had been a great diminution in the rate of mortality owing to the work of the institution. It is needless to say that the Sanatorium has proved its usefulness in not only helping to stem the ravages of the white plague, but as the President said in minimizing the sorrow and distress caused by it. The institution now lies very near to the hearts of the people, and last night's meeting, with its generous and eloquent tributes to the work, was reflected in the help given to it in the future.

OUR TRADE WITH BRITAIN

Canada's trade with Great Britain and with the United States is fabulous. We import much more from the United States than we export to it, and to the latter country, while we export much to and import little from the former country. There may be a great deal of truth in this, but it is a condition that should be remedied if possible. This is a state of affairs to which Mr. Lloyd Harris should devote much attention. The Government of London, England, a trade paper, says that "Canada's trade returns for the past year 'bring into bold relief how small the trade of Canada from us in comparison with her exports to this country. During only with the twelve months ended September, 1919, her purchases from the United Kingdom amounted to no more than $7,025,435, against $30,795,091 bought from the Dominion by us. The figures are the most startling when we find that Canada's purchases from the United States amounted to $70,072,385, or nearly nine times more than those from the United Kingdom. The difference is the £140,000,000 sterling a year, there will be no room for remissness or slackness in the masters of the spirit of 'can-can' in the men."

The Canadian also makes the appeal that if Canada knew how much her support as a customer would mean to the old country she would be glad to give the same support to the products of Canada. Perhaps an improvement might be possible if the same spirit of 'can-can' were here and study the needs of the country on the spot.

THE NEW HIGH SCHOOL

The meeting held in the Board of Trade rooms yesterday in the interest of the establishment of a new High School was well attended, not a few prominent citizens being present, and the spirit prevailing showed that there was a strong feeling that the school should be established. The present school has outgrown its accommodation and a new site and new up-to-date buildings are necessary. The city has already been told that the neighborhood of Ancaster. It is figured to erect a building costing about $100,000 and $250,000 of that sum was subscribed in stock at the meeting, and a committee appointed to solicit subscriptions of stock for the remainder. This will not likely be difficult to raise.

The citizens know the great work done by Mr. Collinson in the present school. Not only was the educational standard of the school of the highest, but he had the knack of infusing into the pupils the highest conceptions of citizenship and many other things. The record of the school shows the high sense of loyalty that was implanted in their minds, a record not surpassed by any other school in the county. For many years the institution holds an enviable position. These facts are all in favor of the perpetuation of the school under new and better conditions.

It is in the best interest of Hamilton that the new school should come into being. Its nearness to the city is in its favor, as it will be reached by radial in a very short time. The removal of the school from the congested and unhealthy of the students its proximity to Brantford, Dundas and Ancaster will also be in its favor. The school will be able to accommodate at least three hundred pupils. Hamilton needs these private schools are a necessity for the city. They have been of great advantage to such places as Toronto, Montreal, Port Hope, Kingston and St. Catharines. They draw to them a desirable class of young men and their removal would be looked upon as a calamity. Hamilton needs this school and we have no doubt that the citizens will see to it that the necessary steps be taken to make it an establishment a matter of certainty in the near future.

THE CARIBBEAN TRADE

A few months ago Lord Forthmore proposed that Great Britain should sell British Guiana and certain of the British islands to the United States, with a view to win off part of British war debt to the States. That, of course, is a very serious proposition, for Britain is not in the habit of selling her possessions or subjects to other countries. The active ravages of these dependencies have a better claim on the attention of the British Government. Needless to say, the natives protested against such a disposal of them and their country and the Government has refused to consider the matter.

In this connection it may be mentioned that "Canadian Trade" publishes in the Caribbean, is the title of a booklet which has been published by the Foreign Trade Department of the Royal Bank of Canada. It is a booklet of great value for Canadian trade in the Caribbean Sea. It contains a list of the islands and a description of the trade in each. It is a booklet that should be read by every Canadian who is interested in trade with the Caribbean Sea.

If Canada's heavy obligations are to be promptly met, it is essential that the foreign trade of the Dominion should be increased, and among the fields available for commercial enterprise there are none more promising than the tropical islands and adjacent mainland of the Caribbean Sea. Lying remote from the rest of the world, and with their products at high prices, has greatly increased their wealth and purchasing power. They constitute for us a chance of increasing our exports of raw materials, and of increasing our imports of goods which we have to sell and purchase. Moreover, under the Canada tariff preference, we are able to export to these islands a large number of goods at a discount of twenty per cent. on most goods of Canadian origin.

It is also true that the war has made the manufacturers of the United States, by their resourcefulness, adaptability and push, and to some extent by their provision of new machinery, outstrip British production, notwithstanding a tariff discriminating in our favor. If we intend to make a real effort to obtain a considerable part of the American output of goods, there will be no room for remissness or slackness in the masters of the spirit of 'can-can' in the men.

The Canadian also makes the appeal that if Canada knew how much her support as a customer would mean to the old country she would be glad to give the same support to the products of Canada. Perhaps an improvement might be possible if the same spirit of 'can-can' were here and study the needs of the country on the spot.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Well, the ex-Kaiser can hardly prove an idiot.

The X-rays ought to be applied to Ireland.

Fortify yourself against the flu by eating black.

There is no stopping up of cellophane in the United States.

The Mayor was the first move on the question. Make it now.

January is doing its own share to make this an old-fashioned winter.

When do the Liberal-Conservatives propose to get back to the Liberal party?

Mr. J. B. Harris believes in public health and in the health of his family. What if they don't?

Harley Dewar is so polite that he has offered Mr. Drury a Toronto seat if he will come and take it.

J. Stewart might hire a hall and rent the electric light to show the coming legislation. They are getting curious.

Suppose we have the same security of power when the Beck radicals are running. What a mess will it make of the time-table?

Russell, who was found guilty in connection with the Winnipeg disturbance, has lost his appeal. The court was unanimous that the verdict was a proper one.

It is reported that the Dominion Government is to have two million dollars for taking possession of the Ross River region during the war. This is a new explanation.

We are told that Mr. Drury has twelve sons to choose from for himself and his children. He would like to have the eldest son to open up a new business.

Is there any danger of a vacancy in the office of the Mayor of Hamilton? Wouldn't Mr. Haultain do for the good of the party? We would allow the Premier to go in by acclamation.

The people of the United States are now demanding to know what Hamilton has to say about the fact that the United States is now fighting the war. Secretary Daniels denies that he made the remark. Admiral Sims has now the floor.

Some doctors are expressed as to Holland giving up the ex-Kaiser. If the Allies are in earnest they can easily provide a Dutch chair for the Kaiser. An economic blockade would do the trick.

We cannot spend money in a better cause than in education. But if the city will be so kind as to spend money on the education of the children, the city will be so kind as to spend money on the education of the children.

And the clamor of the Sinn Feiners for separation from the British Empire and the creation of an Irish Republic is to be heard the voice of the Irish delegation in the British House of Commons. They are now in the British House of Commons. They are now in the British House of Commons.

DYSPEPSIA BUSINESS

They Don't Hit - To Be Yet. Yet Your Meals With Dyspepsia Tablets. They Don't Hit - To Be Yet. Yet Your Meals With Dyspepsia Tablets.

Business men and women are all too apt to get dyspepsia. They don't hit - to be yet. Yet your meals with dyspepsia tablets. They don't hit - to be yet. Yet your meals with dyspepsia tablets.

KLEIN & BINKLEY

Diamond Merchants, Jewelers and Opticians, Issuers of Marriage Licenses, 35-37, North.

It is reported that the Dominion Government is to have two million dollars for taking possession of the Ross River region during the war. This is a new explanation.

We are told that Mr. Drury has twelve sons to choose from for himself and his children. He would like to have the eldest son to open up a new business.

Is there any danger of a vacancy in the office of the Mayor of Hamilton? Wouldn't Mr. Haultain do for the good of the party? We would allow the Premier to go in by acclamation.

The people of the United States are now demanding to know what Hamilton has to say about the fact that the United States is now fighting the war. Secretary Daniels denies that he made the remark. Admiral Sims has now the floor.

Some doctors are expressed as to Holland giving up the ex-Kaiser. If the Allies are in earnest they can easily provide a Dutch chair for the Kaiser. An economic blockade would do the trick.

We cannot spend money in a better cause than in education. But if the city will be so kind as to spend money on the education of the children, the city will be so kind as to spend money on the education of the children.
